Thank you for saying this; I appreciate the acknowledgement. I do wish you were showing up saying "lets fix this honey, I can't be with out you." But as it is that is not what your words or actions are saying or showing. I pray everyday for us. I pray for health and happiness and for resolution. I hope you are well, I hope things are good even in

SHORT STORY...

A woman came out of her house and saw three old men with long white beards sitting in her front yard.

She said, "I don't think I know you, but you must be hungry.

Please come in and have something to eat.

Thank you for words of inspiration. I hope you are doing ok. I will be able to send your guitar at the end of the week.

no, I am not ok at all, im still really hurt over everything, but thank you.

you can keep the guitar, I bought it for us and to have something to do when I came to visit. you have long fingers and you will be really good at it if you learn to play it. will come in handy for camping and what not later.

I will send it out to you on Thursday. I am positive you will get more use out of it. You are the musician no thank you; I dont know how you feel about this, but this has devistated me. nothing in my life feels good anymore. This has destroyed me. please save the money and the hassle and keep it.

I got it for us to bond over, and we did, it was very special the moments we had singing random songs together for me. Now it just hurts everyday.

It is very painful

with out a doubt; I would of prefered together; I would of devoted my life and work to us
if you truly loved me and wanted us too; You made me believe you did; I am left with the only choice but to pray for the things that matter most in life for you and I. True love does not die, it transforms.

I had relearn again today; things are not always what they seem; some people will pretend to care about you, but alot of them just want something from you 💔. Then there are others who whether you know it or not do. Its not until you are hurt, devistated and broken that you can see who is for you and against you 💔. There is evil in this world, and its closer to you then you may see. But sometimes the light shines through and illuminates blessings you didnt know were there. Today I am grateful for this. Thank you.

I don't know Alan, this year has been so much I feel mostly stupid, nieve and it's leaving with with an overwhelming sense of sadness and anxiety that's either tolerable through a zombie like numb state or just crippling.

you do know; this has been hard; it didnt change what I feel for you; you wont let beauty, love, health and happiness be us. I hurt everyday and night over everything; I have wanted nothing more then for the things we planned and the love you said you had for us to be true. I dont want us in this situation or for us to be hurt. This is why I pray everyday for you and I.

I wanted all of that too Alan.

maybe with someone else there in TX, but not with me. I don't see any love or effort from you to support or follow through on the plans we made. You know I love and care about you, you won't let us be happy, healthy and in love. All I can do is pray for good for you and I. You know I am and have been totally devoted to a life together Tess.

I won't be staying in TX. I am counting the days until my lease is up and saving every bit I can. Maybe love and happiness at my age and health and emotional state just aren't in the cards for me. I am

You and I both know that's wrong; You know if I was not in this situation; I would of been there for halloween with awesome costumes for us, I would of been there for Thanksgiving frying us a Turkey and cuddling, I would of been there for Christmas putting up a tree gifting you and the pups, spending new years together and Kissing you at midnight. What have you let me know?
