Most ppl dont want to hear this, but real relationships that last involve a lot of forgiveness. You have to accept the fact that your partner isnt perfect & will hurt you, disappoint you, & upset you. You have to figure out if you're willing to go thru ups & downs with them

When you have alot of love to give but youre not very good at expressing it as to how much I have been thinking about you, I have been thinking about you

I know Tess, I have accepted this; this is talking about half of it; the other half its not talking about is the compromise, adjustments, sacrifice and burden they share as well and how they learn to gracefully and gratefully over time. Because at some point, nothing else in the world really matters to them more then each other.

no matter what; anytime I see your face, I will always feel and think it is so beautiful to me

Pisces 11/29/21 - 12/5/21

Two of Pentacles: This week, focus on gaining perspective and creating balance. If you find yourself spreading yourself too thin, getting lost in the details, or caught up in day-to-day life, step back and regain your focus of the bigger picture. Ask yourself: What life do I want? And how can I reorganize my schedule to create the life I desire? Remember to slow down, rest, and regroup.

What does yours say?

to be honest with my feelings and pay attention to my intuition, and feel the things I need to feel

And what does your intuition say about what?

I don't know your the one listening to it

thats cute

Well?

Tuesday 4:39 PM

well? I dont know, you're not really asking a whole question

What does your intuition tell you? I guess it is an open ended question

Tuesday 7:36 PM

not really asking me a whole question how do you nurture and support a relationship you care about?

I call and check in and listen

Find things in common to connect over

Encourage support

I don't know Alan relationship stuff.

Did you ever feel like I nurtured our relationship?

I do feel like you supported it and tried to nurture it at times

I do feel like you supported it and tried to nurture it at times yes

How so?

in the begining you somtimes asked how I was feeling. Or if I was tired of you yet, I think that was a way of you trying to show care

I guess it was hard

I guess it's a question for you. If you even like me. Like at all

It hurts that that's what you say my hurting to was... asking if you were tired of me yet.

*nurturing

Was to you

I guess I didn't give anything to the relationship

I think, when you wanted me to like you; like when we cooked together, or you wanted me to wash your back, or when we went on adventures or to the pool or to the beach or shopping, we liked each other alot

When we were just enjoying the relationship and letting it happen instead of picking it apart

I think more then a few times; when alcohol was being heavily abused, we both fell apart

That's one thing we agree on this is all in response to your retorical question of do you even like me; I think the way things have gone and are now have triggered a honeymoon/abuse cycle for 8 months. alcohol has had alot to do with it and some other things like the medical too.

I think the honeymoon abuse cycle has been throughout the entire relationship
