What do you feel is good for us down deep in your bones that we cut the bullshit and we make a happy life together; that we move through this to the other where we love each other so much again

*move through this to the other side what do you feel is good for us deep down?

Wiggly tiggly Bonnie jo

I am the best eva, now I need a hug and a kiss please

I watched a pretty crazy documentary series yesterday. Made me sad you weren't here playing video games while I watch weird stuff

And you are the best Eva

What docu series? are you seriously just fucking with me? can you be a good woman for me and just say "Im sorry I ripped you a new asshole for three days and then murdered you on Friday the 13th, I love you Alan" 🤪🤪🤪🤪

Thank you beautiful

I'm sooooo I'm sorry I ripped you a new asshole.

I love you Alan

I forgive you; I love you Tess

Thank you

what docuseries?

The devil you know

It's weeeird

I would not have been playing video games; I would of been glued to this with you, and asking to pause it while I made us dinner

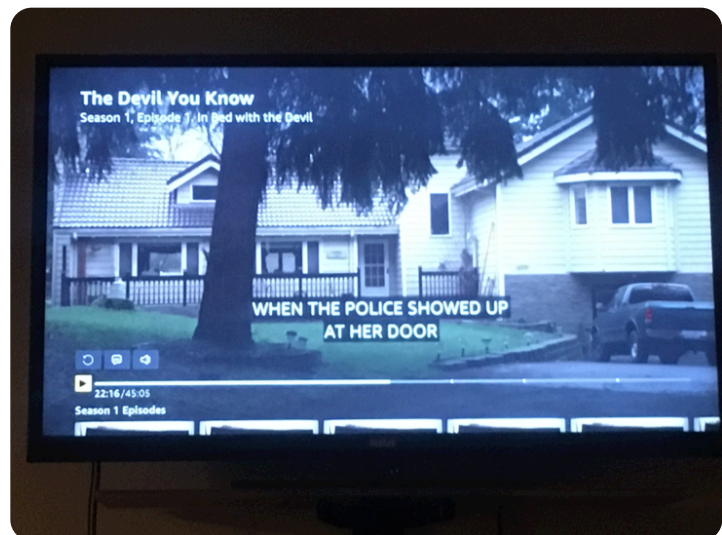

I like the guy that explains why this stuff happens in small towns that have lost opportunities

It's obvi a really extreme documentary. But it sounds like a lot of stories from people that have left small towns on the east coast

Boredom. Partying. Drugs. No direction. Drugs

Loved an image boredom, partying, drugs, no direction is a dark place; I dont want to be stuck there, I want to be with my woman in out garden with our babies and our dogs; happy af, taking it a day at a time, doing the work, growing the garden nice!

We on the balcony. It's the only garden I got

I feel hella emo today dont worryr baby; imma fix it; just work with me, dont give up. Dont fuck me around, and Imma never give up on us

Say "Ok, I love you, we got this"

Ok I love you we got this Oooh I just saw the maintenance guy. He is bliiiiind. I just saw him try to read a work order and I though he was smelling it

I like that guy; he has 5 kids, loves his wife, cares that his kids make it and works his ass off to support them; blind as fuck but kicks as much ass as he can everyday

Loved "I like that guy; he has 5 kids, loves his wife, cares that his kids make it and works his ass off to support them; blind as fuck but kicks as much ass as he can everyday"

I'm not kicking ass today

I am procrastinating work because I know it's slow today. Sam sent me aggressive texts first thing in the morning about to do notes a dr left on the desk that aren't urgent just need to be done. And basically I am trying to have our shifts over lap as little as possible

She went to Kates party over the weekend that I avoided. And got rediculously drunk. Kates friend had to sumo pick her up out of the pool and carry her all the way to Eddies truck. And then she accused Eddie of having chemistry with Kate 🤔 when they were all how do we just get her home.

Kate was all she goes from zero to 100. Kate wasn't drinking cause it was her party for her friend and being all responsible.

I had a bad feeling about that. And I admitted to Kate I kind of avoid where Sam goes cause of that stuff

Remember when I left her house and was like that was aaaaaweful. She turns into a puddle of really hard to deal with. And you were mad at me before I could explain the situation its hard not to like Kate, she is pretty awesome and level. Says what she wants and gets it to, we all can be more like her in ways. Im pissed at Sam for always fucking up the end of our visits by bailing out of work or not showing up so we can send each other off with love.

So anyways. I don't even want to go to work and deal with her

In this weird way I want to quit. I am home sick. Kate is going to SF beginning of Sept so is Mya.

I get it beautiful; you were also hammered lastnight and texting me some things I woke upto that made me feel loved, I appreciate it

I kind of want to go take a breather and just be around something familiar and show them around

Ok beautiful; do what you need, just know I love you, I have a plan for us, I think its going to work and be good

Would you come house sit for me. I can't bear to put them in boarding. And then stay for a while?

babe, Im moving there as soon as I can, we are gonna make something very awesome.

something you love and I love together; and then Imma sit around with you when we have time, learn the songs you like and we are gonna sing them together

Dont give up on us, dont move back, go visit go relax, see who you miss and love, then baby lets make a life together we are proud of what do you say?

I'm in

I just got to work and Sam aggressively just said I did all the sheets which is an afternoon task. Which means she's been slow as shit but making me feel bad for it.

my beautiful woman; thats what I want and need, you ❤️

Sam is being shitty to everyone and someone needs ask her why, and Eddie needs to give her a fucking hug.

8/17/21, 2:21 PM

I just want to be home with my dawgs eating spaghetti

8/17/21, 3:48 PM

8/17/21, 6:04 PM

What is?

is it better then what we got?

Questioned "What is?"

huh? wanna talk about it?

Questioned "is it better then what we got?"

is what ever going on better then what we have together?

Watching lifetime tv series and trying to keep Bonnie and rusty from barking and claiming who gets to be on the couch so yes or no?

Just be here

Cause I miss you and you ain't here why the sour puss?

Put your abs away jeezus. Make me want to trip and fall and just rub my face on them are you gonna let me come home?

Where is home baby with each other beautiful

I miss be able to walk around town. To bike to work.

Walking rusty and it's not 90 degrees

I think I am just emo today and cranky from the humidity

And mosquitos

Mostly the mosquitos why babe; whats got you down?

Not being able to just walk and sit at a park and not be eaten alive.
#caspoiled

Cant even make it down the block with out rusty busting from the heat

I miss walking

And biking

Having windows open let me know when its ok to come home then or if it isnt

Come scratch my mosquito bites pleeeeee

yes dear

What's it like in Florida right now?

same fucking there, but a breeze and me unfortunatly

You should be here and we should be rubbing each others feet we didnt do any of this last time

Cause we were throwing eachother around the pool and diving so much fun

I want to go back to that pool with you loved every second of that everytime I looked at you; my heart was thumping

Maybe that is why I am cranky cause we would go to the pool together in the heat. But I am not going to go by myself thats whats got me upset for days since I got back; I would be doing fun happy shit with you

I have not been to the pool here since you left; But I have been thinking about it recently

Loved "I want to go back to that pool with you"

Loved "Cause we were throwing each other around the pool and diving"

You should it's way nice

I do really want my person to be waking up with in love everyday; Its been you and Rusty for over a year and more then half the second empty babe

I wanna be getting up with you, planting a thousand kisses on you and sharing coffee together; walking the pups and getting our day going in the feel good direction always love; life just feels empty with out you babe; get your ass home, let me come home; I love you

8/18/21, 8:12 AM

Morning those days are just watching rusty and Bonnie be lunatics geeze love; what can I do to warm you up to us more?

You'd be mad at me cause I sleep in too late

And depression doesn't want to wake up umnn, when I wake you up, you are happy af whats wrong; are we ok honey?

Yeah babe. I am just late for work cause I was so cozy I didn't want to wake up

If I ever actually had real babies. I'd never leave the house

What?!really?!

what you think beautiful? do you love me?

Yeeees

I bought athletic swim stuff to start lap swimming next week so. You gotta do that with me after work that sounds fucking amazing!

I haven't found a pool yet

Sorry I stressed out just the barking and stuff was stressing me out. They just needed to be fed and walked. All is calm now

And I don't want you spending all of your money figuring this out

It's not fair

And if you need to move on so you can get your focus back. I totally understand.

We are in a purgatory that is frustrating

I don't have answers for it. Or what we would do together. I don't know Alan

8/18/21, 7:30 PM

if you know that you dont love me; dont want to be with me and are leaving for good; then I have no other choice but to move on

I feel we should make a plan if you do tho its hard to tell if you alot latly what do you really want in life?

are you just totally fucking with me so hard for everything?

I'm not fucking with you Alan. I don't know what I want. I'm just trying to have a safe place to be. Work a roof over my head and have dogs to come home to so I'm not as lonely. Maybe I'm too immature for a relationship. Maybe I'm too depressed. Maybe I've never been trained properly. But honestly I'm just trying to pass days until I die and lord knows that is too far away. Wo ever wanted to be here anyways

I hear you good days and bad days go easy; sounds like im just getting in the way now for you.

Do you think you would be happy here for 18 days? It really is boring week days. Sleeping in. Semi depression. Walking the dogs. Dealing with dogs. Watching tv at night. It's boring Alan.

ok Tess; please dont ask me to come and be with you if you dont love me, dont want to be with me and dont want us

life isnt always happy and a vacation

8/19/21, 5:24 AM

Good Morning; I love you even when I dont understand; Just shoot me straight and love me too and everything will be ok beautiful

I'm not drinking till you get here

Are those the questions you were asking me yesterday that got me all stressed out like I don't know Alan. I don't have the answers for you?

no babe; I love you and I working on us; we deserve a happy and healthy life together.

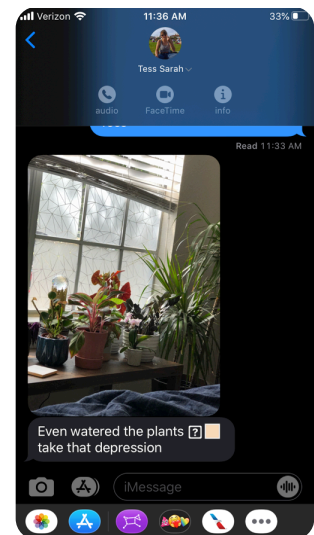

I am committed to being a functional part of this, I am doing my best to keep the dysfunction to a minimal. I know its unrealistic there will be no dysfunction, we didnt get good examples of this in parents. But I believe we have what it takes to overcome that; that we are blessed with things we dont find anywhere else. I know none of this now is easy; I pray and hope everyday we make it through to the other side, in love, happy, healthy and wealthy together

Well you'd be proud of me I finally woke up a bit earlier took the dogs for a longer walk did dishes and didn't sleep in until the last minute

I am proud of you; you have so much potential; we have a shot and a chance at something truly beautiful and admired; I am not ok with throwing that away; you mean the world to me and I love you sooo much Tess

Even watered the plants 🧑🏿🗑️ take that depression emoji didnt resolve

Sam is taking 4 days off next month and I have no choice but to work 12 hr days

So I am kind of over it

I'm definitely over it

ESP not a 29 yr old that isn't even doing anything but fucking off

Kiss me more and my thighs open a bit for you

But I want to feel you more

Before

Turn me upside down I want to feel you

I want to taste you lips, and smell your neck as I move to it to kiss

I want to feel your wonderful body all over mine

I want to suck on you ear as I press my hard cock against your sexy thick thighs

And I am under you and I want to press my full breast up into your shoulders as you trust into me

I want to flip you upside down and taste you while you suck on my thick cock and moan from the pleasure of me licking and sucking your clit

I am gonna move now; we cant take it; I have to have you

I am pressing into you, pulling you tighter

I love you, I desire you; you feel so good

Im going to flip you now; I want to make you cum, Im going rub your clit while I bang on your G spot

I am gonna grab a fist full of your hair; and pull it back and as you cum im going to kiss you and lay with you with my cock throbbing inside of you while I kiss you a thousand times and tell you how much I love you and how wonderful you feel and it feels

It's over Alan. I've had two sex dreams Over the last two nights

One was me hiding in a ladies stall trying to have an orgasm like it was a chore. Cause your body has to do it.

I hate where we are how I feel. I hate how this relationship makes me feel

It's not good

There is nothing good what happened?

we were fine an hour ago

you said you love me

I'm growing a camel toe in Texas cause I'm depressed getting fat just sad and I can't tell my family we are still talking

I hate myself and my life

I hate it any view I look at it

I love you, and its hard, we can fix this all

No we cant

I wake up every morning hating everything. Alan. That's not love that's fucking torture

We cant

I do to; but I find a way to get back to what matters us our love

I'd rather sleep than wake up to the reality we created. That's fucking crazy

Literally nutz

I'm drinking everyday.
I hate our lives

Tess; this is so left feild, dont shut me out like this; talk to me

we can fix this; I know this isnt easy at all; but you need love too

I have it for you

No Alan. The day I knocked on your door for a first day I was happy I was fine. I was managing life. I hate everyday I wake up now.

First date

It's not getting better. It's getting more questionable

It's not good or ok babe; I have done everything you ask of me

I am here for you

I love you; what do you need?

talk to me please; I know you are triggered right now; but dont shut me out; let me be here for you

I'm triggered. But I am holding back from what I really want to say. So please leave me alone. I'm settling down with dogs for the night. Please leave me alon

just say it

Guess who's still trying to claw his way out of here. Would have been fine if we never would have left SF

I hope to god you are just drunk and having a moment; you are being good to us and you do love us; I want to talk with you about this when you are ready

No one in this relationship is happy. You, me, the dog, family Remind me again what the fuck we are working towards a happy life; health, wealth, family; pratnership, love

*partnership support; help; love

We never had even a preview of that while dating thats what we are working on Your house and what's ever happened to that past since I met you was eruptive

And any happy health and wealth stability got blown out yeah I wont argue that what was happening there was bad but you

I look around just wondering where any of that is Where did it go

Cause I had it

And yes it was alone. But I would take it all back

I am am more capable on my own

I haven't felt like this in yeeeeeats

Yeeeeeears

I'm don't

I'm done I'm done I'm done

I'm done

Giving and putting energy into something just makes you feel worse

Look at me and tell me something in my life that makes me feel better

That I want to wake up for babe, we have what it takes to do it right this is new for us both

I havnt done any of this with any body only you and yes this is hard af

I hate it too

I want you home so bad

fuck

sigh done with what?

how did I make you feel worse?

I dont know what I did, I keep loving you everyday, I am not giving up; I care, I love you

That I can tell my family and friends about

I don't want to bitch about work.

I don't not want to be where I am

That you was you

And I absorbed it.

I'm going back wait

please dont walk away from us

I am

ok

are you sure Tess

What good thing did you ever give to my life

fuck

I keep trying; I dont give up; I love you; I encourage you; I support you; I feed you

I work my ass off for you

When I it here tonight and look around. What good thing did you bring

I dont leave you hanging when you need me

I'm fucking alone working a shitty job with out my family and friends.

you choose to stay there babe, you family choose for you to

I am asking you to come home

Go work your ass off for your family and leave me alone

I do

but also for you

I have been asking you to come home for 5 months

No leave me alone. I'm not here to give you purpose or make yourself feel better about yourself or something to do you right

Home?! Home?! Are you fucking kidding me we are here to love, support, help and build with each other and be happy together

yes

we are home for each other, remeber?

Your asking me to go back to the apt you created in FI that is the exact same as SF. Isolated. And only you

no

Yes

I am asking for us to be home with each other

You don't even know what that means where ever it is and work us out because we love each other

Your asking me to come back to a place with you

And all your stuff and no space to relive how it was in sf. That I am at your place you asked me to come to a place with you to

I do

I know its not ideal, but we can fix it and change this we can make it how we like it and the space we need

I'm not you asking you to do anything. Except when you catch me vulnerable. I'm pretty sure I'm not asking you for anything

And to leave me the fuck alone

fuck

I'm pretty sure I know how to handle my own

I don't need you

Your protection

Your lavash presents

Im trying to love you and be with you and do the right thing together

I just need you to quit complicating and stressing and stressing and stressing and needing and attention

Stop!

Leave me alone

what are you talking about?

fuck Tess; I dont know wtf is going on; but I am so sorry you feel this

Do you realize how complicated and fucked up meeting you has made our lives. Are you daft

This all fucking revolves around you and every move you have ever fucking made

I'm done

I want my life back

I want my fucking life back

I want us to build a better life; Im sorry you dont want that rn and you want to go back to something you were not happy with you were not happy there, you wanted to leave, we decided to build something new together

It wasn't that bad for me Alan. This is worse

I love you and this is what I have been here for you from the beginning

No Alan you weren't

I'm sorry

we decided to build something new together

No we didn't

You left scared and unstable.

it takes time

And asked me to come out. While hooking up with your hometown girl

I didnt ask you to come out

And I don't know why I was so blind and stupid

You were always mad at me

I asked you to be with me not a vacation

And it kept me from realizing you needed something to latch onto and used me use you for what?

Focus

I love you; Im trying to help and support

No your not babe this is making no sense

yes I am

I care about this; us; you; how you are feeling rn; when you ask for me I am here

No your not because you have only created instability. So much so I'm out here in fucking Texas trying to recreate the stability I already had no babe the plan was that you were coming back then you signed the lease and wanted to stay

Your mad

I don't know how to explain to you the instability that has happened since I met you

I want us home and together

It's over

I won't take it any more

It's over

take any more what?

what the fuck tess

god damnit

I get you are angry; I am sorry you are here in this right now its not what I want

Don't spend any more money. Don't

I want us happy together

Don't anymore

It's impossible

I don't trust you. I don't feel good around you.

what? what happened?

why?

I don't want you to spend any more money all this is costing me dearly but I love you and you asked me to step up

love and happiness is more important than money; money comes and goes

I have more negative feelings about us than good. And the last trip. I felt more anxiety with you besides drinking as the ok blanket. Uncover that. I don't feel good or ok or comfortable or relaxed about us thats total oposite of what you said what is going on

Soo let's let it stop costing you dearly

Let's stop

god damnit

I love you Tess; dont end something you love; dont walk away from something you love we love each other and we are happy with each other; where is all this coming from? how drunk are you and what did you do?

fuck; I dont know what happened; but I am sorry, this is not what I want, I want us to be happy together and building a future. I love you I am sorry you are feeling this way

You cant come here for 18 days because you will hate potty training Bonnie. And if I take the dogs for a walk for potty training. You will think I am up to something and you won't let me drive to work wich I do every day with out offending you. Everything I do or live offends you

You think I'm expensive. I haven't had to refill the tank of gas in the truck since you left

Your drama Alan

Your the one with all the food and driving around and need to go go go Half your food is frozen. The other half is rotting and needs to be thrown out. Don't do all your bells and whistles.

You cant come here for 18 days and spiral and spend money and complain about being bored

I'd rather you not

I did eat the ravioli tho. So I apologize for that I love you Tess; I am sorry you are feeling like this

I have no clue what triggered this but its got me really sad and stressed if you got someone else there now and dont want me around I am sorry

I do love you very much and I wish you didnt get triggered this way put it off as I have someone here instead of taking responsibility

You make me sick to my stomach with that I hate you because I have no one here and you took me away from anyone I've ever had. And your still promising things thatdont fucking excit

And you don't see that. I hate you

And you think someone that means anything is a fuck. And you don't realize that doesn't expostulate. You care more about sleeping with people or who people are sleeping with than family and friends and jobs.

And i am unable to communicate how frustrating that is babe, this is not true at all and I am so sorry you are feeling this way and so angry; I love you, I wish I could hold you right now and just let you know its gonna be ok; stick together, we can fix this all and make a beautiful life together if you want

I am sorry you hate me its not at all what I want

No this beautiful life you talk about has no foundation no reality. It's in your dream. Your fantasy. Because you can't see what is in front of you

You live in nightmares and paranoia

And stress and annoyance

And you leave it up to me to make things fun and easy going and happy

And I'm exhausted

you are coming at me so hard rn with zero responsibility for your choices or actions; Im just trying to love you Cause I can also just live my life and be fine and stable. I don't need a dream Alan. I'm fine.

this is not stable Tess

Please leave me alone

Not it is not stable and that's what I am saying Alan you are triggered; I love you please clam down

I dont hate you I love you; I want to work out our situation and fix this all together; I have plans I wrote about it to you

I realize you feel horrible and angry right now; I dont want this, I want us happy and together; I love you with all my heart Tess.

No you don't your afraid to be alone and have no idea what's next so your clinging on no Tess, this is not true; I love you, I want to work us out; this is why I have stepped up to all you have asked of me; havnt given up and still keep our space for us only this right now isnt fun, it hurts, but I love you so I am here; I care this is happening; its not what I want for us; I want us happy and together and building a life we are proud of

I have been alone along time; then I met you

I was fine

I fell in love with you; I asked for us to share a life together

I have not put a ring or jewelry on another woman since I divorced

I love you; I want us to be happy and together and working through this hard stuff to get to the days that we are so happy, in love and making a life we are proud of with each other you were not happy in CA or SF, you wanted to leave, we did it. lets build something new and beautiful, we love each other Tess, we do

That's your own thing. That's not a compliment. That means you got hung up on some bitches. Quit wearing that as honor cause I'd rather not have jewelry that's in the same category of someone you divorced. Got get that ring and give it back to her and be like remember vows. I want nothing to do with that shit or jewelry that belongs to her or reminds you of giving jewelry or any of that marriage shit. I don't want it Alan

I don't fucking want to be any part of it Alan

You guys don't win cause you guys fucked up

I don't have to feel bad for your emotions of divorce

I don't have to be happy because you gave me jewelry for the first time since your divorce you twisted self centered fuck

Tess; its a token of my love to you yes my first marriage was a disaster and it was fucked up

Do you not fucking what it sounds like to say I haven't given jewelry to anyone besides the woman I divorced. Fuck you and your loyalty and bullshit

Im not trying to do repeat thia

Seriously listen to your fucking self

I dont

to me is sounds like for 20 something years I have not met a woman I wanted to marry; but to you its diffrent and I am not trying to disrespect you

Don't ever give me a fucking a ring because you already gave it to someone else

fuck

Christianity that shit. Love devotion and loyalty

Don't come at me with that shit

I'm good on my own. And I'll wait for the real thing

fuck

Tess; I love you ; you are not making any sense on the things you have told me you want rn; clam down

I am sorry you are triggered and angry; I dont like it or want this. I am just trying to do my best with us in the circumstances and working for a better day together; this is a hard time right now look; I dont want us going to bed angry with each other, I care about you, us and this realtionship; this is not throw away to me. I am here, lets fix this

When I give a ring to someone. It will be because it's the only person I will ever give a ring too and I won't say. It's the only jewelry I've given since that last relationship that didn't work. That we vowed in front of family and god that we would build a beautiful life. But feel special cause I am giving you jewelry since then

Or I won't... and that will be fun too

Don't be stupid Alan

Fine too

Just leave it Alan. Just leave it. It's all over. I don't buy into your games and false optimism

8/20/21, 5:51 AM

I do what I do for you because I love you and nothing less; I feel horrible this is what you have to say to me and I am sorry you feel this way; I love you Tess and I wish that this wasnt going this way at all

I am doing things diffrent with you than anyone I have ever been with; its not false, its a choice; I have learned from my mistakes and I am trying to be a better person to love.

8/20/21, 7:11 AM

things have not been perfect by any means I know; sometimes totally horrible; I just want you to know that, I have only tried to love us as much as I can, all I have wanted since I met you is a happy life together Tess; I love you

Im so devastated about this; what happened to you loving me so much, being so proud of me, loving me for how I have stepped up to everything you have asked of me, wanting us, believing in us; where did you go love?

sigh, I miss you so much

Bonnie used the pee pad last night 🙄

I had the most amazing dream last night that I found the most amazing pool park. It had one regular dive pool. A deep dive pool a lap lane pool and then two pools to just hang out in Great Proud of Bonnie; glad you had good dreams; Read over everything you said to me lastnight... Read over what I said to you... We need to talk face to face

we are not leaving this unresolved any longer; we are gonna be adults about this

*adults

I know you were triggered drunk af lastnight, I have been there and always felt horrible for this with us; you are venting out alot; I am not here to fight with you over this, I need you to get it out; I respect how you feel and I want to be supportive in changing these deep rooted disappointments; I care, I cant leave this in a bad place; we need to resolve this conflict like adults and loved ones; own our shit, hug it out and forgive

Im not the guy who is gonna give up and get it wrong; When a man loves a woman he never lets go, even when she walks away, a man who really loves a woman will always, and I will always

if you are coming off your meds, you cant quit the citalopram cold turkey; you have to half it for two weeks then quarter for two weeks, it takes about a month, if you dont it will be bad for you

I want to talk with you, do you have sometime this evening to talk with me?

I don't have enough of it so I am just halving it and I am still in Wellbutrin

I am still at work

the wellbutrin you can go off easier; its the citalopram that you have to ween yourself off as it causes problems if you dont.

8/20/21, 5:47 PM

I know

wanna talk with you

The dogs are doing their cray energy stuff I gotta feed em and walk em fuck you

Ok

Not as pretty as your lightening storm

ok

8/20/21, 7:34 PM

if this is how you really feel; I am sorry; I hope this changes for you; I hope you find what you are looking for

You want to see me off meds. That's it. I won't want to be around anyone. Waking up in the morning g and the thought of being around people will give me a panic attack.

People's voices will make me cringe

You were curious

Here it is

Yes the thought of you doing things for me is overwhelming and I won't don't want it.

I already and will want to be left totally alone and out of sight and sleep to make that happen

I've done this once already in a relationship. Cause yeah people without mental issues don't get it and think it's abnormal to take medicine. Immediately asked me to get back on them

I will turn into a bear that hibernates and gets just as pissed if you interrupt it

So here you go. Get what you ask for thats just the first part of this; you should of never been perscibed those together; its known to be dangerous, I love you and I did my research and asked questions you need a natural over the counter

I want you to try the st johns wort

3 times a day after you come off the meds

I think you should also try the ashwagandha because it works super good; you take it twice a day; it wont interfear with you thyroid medication the point of you coming off meds is for us to get married and have children its not to torture you or make your life hell; its to help bring you to a healthy place with out chemicals

I can personally say that since I started st johns wort, and ashwagandha it has helped me navigate the stress of this all with so much more grace and love then I ever expected

<https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/11765308/>

I can't ashwagandha

we can consult a doctor about this

I've also learned not to trust woo woo herbs sold in Whole Foods for a real condition. This has literally put me in the hospital for two weeks and 3 months bed rest. I've tried it all Alan. I've tried St. John. I tried Ashwagandha. It's not new to me Alan

the welbutrin and the cipro is a bad combo herbs are not woo woo

And you guys think you have an answer and it's all just you don't need it.

weed isnt woo woo hey, I care and I am trying to help not hurt

I hate you for thinking such simple things would fix such a chronic problem Alan.

look i dont think that

Because I have tried it and if it helped I would be on it

I care and I am trying to support and help

I didnt know that thank you for telling me you have

And the frustration you feel just getting into it and a couple google searches frustrates the shit out of me

I asked doctors

I looked it up medically not on the internet my mom helped because she cares about you to Because if I could make it not be a thing I fucking would

I know

I fucking would

I know Tess

I know

I want to help because I care

Like kids in high school skipped class to go do drugs or something fun. I skipped class to steal my moms car and go sleep around the corner of the block

You cant help Alan

You don't have the answers not yet; but cant fault me for caring and wanting to help and there are answers out there waiting to be discovered

Yeah In the new science no one wants to get behind

I don't want to talk to you about it

We have very different views on science

I hope you find what you are looking for

You too

thank you

But the funny thing is you cant admit that your truth isn't always everyone else's

I can

And your hard and barren and I waiver if

And unwavering.

I know im tough

but loving

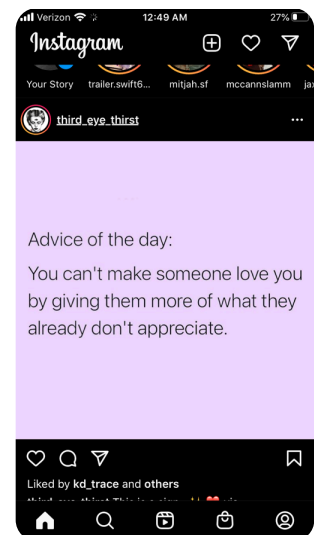

And your truth is so pious. It will push everyone away only those who cannot be truthful

And for the record... religion makes ugly people strong

I care about you and I love you even in the hard times remeber that

Thank you, that's what I was trying to say

You cant force your self or live on people

Love

I understand; my love is not forced for you

If you haven't made the foundation for it to be received it just feels like being buried

I am working on it but you keep jack hammering it instead of working on it with me this is not how we roll we roll working together not against each other

I understand right now you are caught in a bad spot and emotionally in an unhappy place; I hate that, I dont want it for you at all

I am a man, who loves you, truly, will work for future together and you are not throw away, insignificant or trash or meat to me

you are a woman, the woman I love, and I care about your wellbeing, your feelings and your future

Do you think we are best friends

I think we are growing be yes and thats is not something that ever comes easy; its things we grow to be with people because they care and they put effort into each other how often do you miss having me around? you say you do alot

I know I miss you always you say you wish you were with me alot you say you wish you were here with me alot for what ever reasons now since friday the 13th you say you are letting go of my hand

Poopy poopy pumpkin pie
You will always be the apple of my eye Though as much as I don't I want our love to die

Release me

I feel like you are pushing me off and telling me I am free to fuck other people because thats going on in your life; I dont like this feeling at all

I hope you find what you are looking for

Legit dogs and soaps happening over here now...

Pffft you needed all that anyways

What happened to the black cover for the futon?

its there; I put the gold blanket over it for you yes I should of found us a bigger place

Why does it feel like you didn't want me in SF then you moved and you use me for some connection of need rather than like or mutual affection

I did the best I could in two weeks and was hoping to move on to a house next year

I hate you feel that way

cause I asked you be with me because i have known for a long time that my heart is yours and I love the fuck out of you even when its shittu and thats not with anyone else and the problem is you are throwing up alot of blocks rn on affection

I keep trying to sort our diffrences so we can settle into that cozy place we both love with each other

You tell me I was unhappy before I met you and yeah I wanted more. And you make me feel like I would bomb out after you.

but you are bucking like a mother fucker now

And neither of those are true

Like there is some need or desperation to be in each others affection. And it's overwhelming

Because that's not how it's supposed to feel. There should be safety and calm in each others affection

And boredom

And relaxation

I just feel stressed out about this all the time

But it's also not gritting your teeth and bearing it all the time

I've got to start winding down I work in the morning

What honey

Being with together is hard to though

I've never been in a relationship this hard

Ever

Alan...

I don't know that that is true we have that and that too

you are rejecting it right now its called love and its not a fairy tale or easy with anyone

this is stressful Tess

hey; honey being apart from the persons you love is hard you know this and I do to yes; both are but yet we still want each other what?

I'm giving up

why?

you want something else now?

I hope you find what you are looking for

I don't want anyone

Im putting up the white flag

I give up

Im done

I sent you a letter

two

Do I want to read them

you are giving up, ok, rest

Should I even open them they are not mean

I dont think we should give up; I think we should push through like you hoodie says but I hope you find what you are looking for if you are moving on aint gonna change that I love you; that shit dont change for me, it transforms, but never goes away for me

I'm moving the dogs to the bed and the soap to the bedroom tv and tuckin in to start sleeping I have to wake up at 6:30 good night; I miss you always; I love you; rest well

I'm totally Rusty and you are totally Bonnie Bonnie is insane. I'm takin them for a quick night pee poo Literally your worried about me throwing away and I just sent you that video and your not throwing me away. Jesus Christ. What is wrong with you

Do you ever think about your own standards what the fuck are you talking about?

you are beautiful to me, how ever you come fucking tease hate me because I love you and I think you are beautiful

I'm over here looking in the mirror like I can't believe this guy is trying to keep me Jesus Christ what is wrong with him

yeah I heard you well believe it; because I dont want anyone else; I want us and I want it to be good; but hey thats just me as you put it so I hope you find what you are looking for

I hope you find what you are looking for too

I did already but the woman is telling me to go some where else

Cool you guys should re visit those vows you made.

im talking about you my ex wife and I are tight, we just split the cost of Dunes therapy

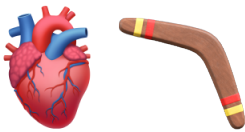

she is married and happy

I found you; I love you; you are the woman I want, the person I want to be with but you know that already you are telling me to go elsewhere and you are looking for something else; I dont like it at all so again, good night, I miss you always, I love you, rest well

Your boo

Holding down and keeping your feet space warm

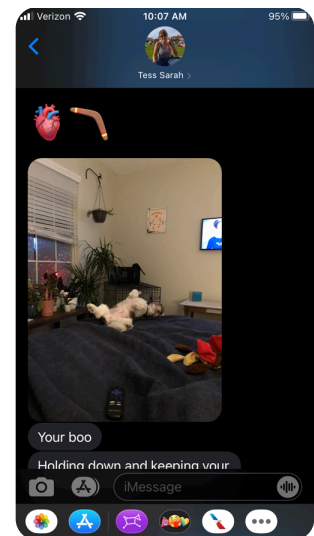

8/21/21, 5:25 AM

emoji's didnt resolve

Honey; is it really still my side? and yeah, Rusty my boi, and you... boo

8/21/21, 7:08 AM

ahh Ok I see; that must of been for your other love and you accidentally sent it to me; cool, I hope it works out for you so tell me the truth please and be a real friend stop lying to me

I'm at work Alan

And I'm not lying about anything ok Im sorry and I am miss understanding of this is sloppy or you meant to say you all miss me wait... I 🤔 I get it, you are saying 💓👉 in jest 👍 "I keep throwing this 🧑 away and he just comes right back" if thats what you meant, thats funny, and I have low comprehension so yeah I dont always get what the meaning is right away

We both do it yeah

I love you fucking toooooooooo

I hate that sometimes you goto a place of feeling horrible about things, but it does not change at all that I love you with all my heart; I am here for you how ever you come and its important to me

I hope we can keep our visit and do more of laying on our back with our feet touching and talking about tough or good things, laying on the couch watching movies or shows and massaging each other feet, going to the pool and visitng kate matt and the kiddos, working through the anxiety or uncomfortable moments with more grace; I really want to be there for you to watch your fav country singer and enjoy this moment with you

Good Morning, and I love you, and I hope this finds its way to your heart even if you are cranky and mad at me, I hope my letter helps you feel loved and I hope that we do stick together and find away to make it work you probably have to goto my IG nodephoto and unblock from there if you want. Its no sweat honey.

I am checking out some audio books trying to find some good things for Dune; since he is starting therapy again

My Aunt who we never talked to growing up cause of family fights and stuff is messaging me on face book thinking I am her brother. She has Alzheimer's

Questioned "trying to find some good things for Dune; since he is starting therapy again"

oh man thats sad honey poor thing

Yeah... I guess she was worse than my Mom. And usually Alzheimer's can make people more mean but it's made her really nice. From what I have heard

She just moved closer to my cousins/her kids

She was just sending a message to her brother/me saying she likes her new place and she gets to walk around a lake a lake with her kids

I hope she is doing ok

Me too. I don't know her at all. Just that we look the same in body type might be good to talk with her a bit honey

I am like my moms mom and Joella in looks

I don't know. That side of the family is so fragile. I don't really want to get into it. A lot of abuse esp for Joella

😊😘 yeah, Im into your looks! 100

Is she has memory problems and she's nice and forgetting about that stuff now thats what my mom says; she says be happy and have fun in life because one day you wont remeber shit anyway so Imma make the best of this for sure

I guess my Grandma used to beat them with her heels. And when she died my mom and her fought over the heels and never talked again

And Joella being the older sister got the worst of it and ALWaYs resented my mom for it

They are 16 yrs apart

Which I get. Cause me and Annika are 10 yrs apart. But I was there for my moms mental break hitting herself in the head and shit during high school. And I do get resentful that annika was gone and I had to be there and now my mom treats her like a princess. But still shames me for every misstep.

So yeah. I don't really want to get in all their business

I can't even believe my Aunt knows who I am

Family patterns I guess

Honey; none of us are perfect, we all make mistakes until we learn from it and then its a learning experience not a mistake any longer you are fine beautiful; learning what you can as you can

I think its cool your Aunt does know you
